WASHINGTON, D.C. - House Republican Leader John Boehner recently recognized Congressman Jerry Moran for his voting record during the 109th Congress. With the conclusion of the 2006 congressional session, Moran continues his near perfect voting attendance compiling a 99.3 percent record since his arrival in Washington, D.C.

"Jerry's voting record serves as a testament to his work ethic and commitment to the people of Kansas," Boehner said. "Jerry travels back and forth from Washington, D.C., to Kansas every week - working tirelessly both in Kansas and in our nation's capital. Kansans are well served by him."

"As a Member of Congress, I understand the most important thing I can do for Kansans is to cast votes on their behalf," Moran said. "I appreciate the opportunity to represent Kansans in Washington, D.C."
